Daily Declarations to Plant the Heavens in Your Life

Jannett Morrow

Foreword

Your speech reflects a lot about your character. The words you speak should always edify a person and be soothing to the listener. Being on purpose with your words is very important and this book is designed to help you do just that.

These declarations come straight out of the book of Proverbs. Each day's declaration can be found in that corresponding Chapter. For example, Day One comes from Chapter One, Day Two comes from Chapter Two and so on. These declarations are intended to help you declare the Word of God over your life and to encourage you to seek out a deeper understanding of the Word of God.

This book can be used as a study guide to help you learn more about who you really are and what God says about you or as a book to pick up when you need a reminder of the truth of God's Word. In this day and time, it's good to have reminders of God's truth.

As you get into the habit of speaking words of life over your life, you will have a greater sense of who you are and that you are a valuable person to God. There are no mistakes in Him, you are here on purpose for a purpose.

God already sees you prosperous and it's time that you see yourself that way. Watch Him use you in a mighty way as you line up your words with His. It's time to discover the true you.

Introduction

Proverbs is defined as wisdom that gives you the ability to make good and wise decisions (1). Being able to make wise decisions will always put you ahead in life. God desires that all our ways be led by Him because His ways are wise and will help us fulfill the purpose for our life.

The Book of Proverbs was written by Solomon, who was said to be the wisest man who ever lived. Proverbs is a Book of answers. In this Book of the Bible, Solomon shares his wisdom on a variety of topics, such as, money, relationships, speech, temptations, etc.

His wisdom, which came from God, teaches us how to live and how to act in various situations. Solomon was a man that trusted God. When you learn to truly trust God, you will find that the wisdom He gives you will always help you be successful and prosperous in life.

Wisdom is defined as good judgement and an understanding of that which is true or good (2). Wisdom tells us to believe and speak God's Word. However, to be able to believe and speak His Word, you have to know His Word. The Bible tells us that we can have whatsoever we ask when we pray (Mark 11:24), but the condition to that being so in your life, comes from believing that we can have whatsoever we ask when we pray.

Believing comes from the heart. How then do we believe? We believe by faith, which is a knowing without seeing (Heb. 11:1). Faith comes by hearing and hearing by the Word of God (Rom. 10:17). The Bible tells us that those who come to God must first believe that He is (Heb. 11: 6). You must believe in God first before you can even begin to speak His Word for your life.

God desires that you know Him and speak His Word over your life. He created you to function like Him (Gen. 1:26-27). He spoke things into existence that He wanted to be, and we can do the same (Gen. 1:3-26). As you grow in Him, you grow in faith and become more able to speak His Word with confidence and start seeing the promises of God come to pass in your life. Remember, words are seed and God gives seed to the sower (Isa. 55:10).

As you declare these words by faith, remember that you are speaking the Word of God out of your mouth. Believe that the words you are speaking are true in your life and that all the promises God has promised you are yours and coming to pass. You are not speaking idle words; you will have to give an account for them all (Matt. 12:36). These words have power and life in them, they are spirit. Believe that you receive, now, the words you have spoken every time you say these declarations. Thank God and praise Him for your harvest that your words have assembled. It's important to think like God thinks and speak as He speaks. We are one with Him and He has great plans your life, but He needs your participation to perform mightily in your life.

You give God permission to act on your behalf through the words you speak. Therefore, it's important to know God and His Word. In the Book of Matthew chapter 8, the Centurion knew the value of words. He had enough understanding to ask Jesus to speak a word only and his servant would be healed (Matt. 8:8). Jesus marveled at his great faith and told him that as he believed, it is done for him and his servant was healed that same hour (Matt. 8:13).

Wow, the Centurion not only saw the results of his believing, but someone else was blessed by his belief in the Word also. He had to have such a belief in the power of the Word to tell Jesus to only speak a word and his servant would be healed. As you continue to grow in Him, your belief in His Word should grow and your confidence to speak His Word will become great, just as the Centurion and countless others in the Bible.

Using our words wisely and with skill in these last days is very important. Wrong words can and will negate your promises. Words are not just sound, but they are spirit and they can bind you or free you (Matt. 12:37; Prov. 6:2) What you allow in your heart is what eventually comes out of your mouth and sets the course for which way your life will go (Matt. 12:34). It's time that you decide that you will have the life that God intended you to have.

Make up in your heart that from this day forward you will not accept anything less than what God has planned for your life. This will mean that you will have to declare His Word over your life daily and with confidence, not give into what your circumstances may be saying, or the situations may look like. Remember you walk by faith and not by sight (2 Cor. 5:7). His Word is true whether the circumstances in your life look like it or not.

As you declare these words over your life, you will begin to truly understand how God created you to walk in dominion by speaking His Word for every situation of your life. He gave us the power to operate in His image and His likeness. Once you really understand that the power you need to change anything is in the words you speak, you will then begin to move mountains and fulfill the calling that's on your life for His glory.

My prayer for you is that as you go through this book, God blesses you and prospers you as you speak His Word over your life. You have the victory and you are more than a conqueror, now go and make your way prosperous and have good success (Josh. 1:8). Until next time, continue to plant the heavens in your life today.
