How To Use This Book - Be Encouraged

- ➤ Meditate Reflect on God's truths.
- Listen Get quiet and hear God.
- Write Jot down what comes to mind.
- Pray Ask God to help you in the process.
- Gratitude Praise God for His goodness.
- Act Do given instructions.

This Companion Journal will help you work through these points. It is a useful tool, to encourage you to go deeper in your understanding and make the most of your reading. As you read each book of the series, you will have thoughts that come to mind and you will want to write them down. You want to be able to capture "in the moment" revelations.

You will get insight and clarity on areas that you may not have thought of before, so you want to jot them down for further understanding later. Also, there will be several questions asked of you that will lead you into further study of the topics you have read. Be ready to write.

You do not want to just read, but you want to get understanding about what you are reading. Slow down and hear what God is saying. He has so much for you to know and sometimes it needs to be highlighted for you, in order for you to see it. That is what this Companion Journal is designed to do. Help you dig deeper and allow the process.

Take time to get quiet and go through each section of this journal. Read the questions, write down what comes to mind. Listen for instructions that may come and be ready to do them. Write this down also. You will find that doing this, will help you know that God is present and that He does speak to you.

Take as much time as you need to meditate on each section. No hurry! You want to hear all that God is speaking to you about each topic. This will also help you to sharpen your listening and discernment skills. The more you know you are hearing what God is saying to you, the more confident and bolder you get in doing what you are led to do. Pray and ask God to help you with this.

There is so much more that you can learn about God and how He has created you to live. He wants you free from bondage and the things that try to hinder your progression in His plan for your life. He wants you to journey and participate with Him as He shows you, you. Be grateful that He desires to unfold what He has called you to become.

The Declaration Page after each section, will help you profess God's Word as you read it out loud and declare it over your life. His promises are real and are for you. Believe it!

There are many waiting for you to discover your purpose and for you to manifest it. This happening will be a blessing, not only to you, but those you are called to. Make the further investment to work on the areas God is shining a light on, as you read this series. Do the work needed to break free and walk in wholeness and completeness in Him. Act on all that has been given to you. The return on your investment, is priceless.

Thank you for making the continual decision to not be comfortable with where you are. For wanting to grow and develop in Him. He loves you and has great plans for you! Be encouraged and keep moving forward!

Until next time, let wisdom speak to you today!

"Comfort is the enemy of progress."

I declare that whatever I put my hands to do today will prosper and honor You. I am a vessel of honor, set apart for Your use today.
